

DAVID EGGERS

Born in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, David lived a normal family life until the deaths of both his parents in the early 1990s. Having to stop his studies at the University of Illinois, David moved to California with his girlfriend and younger brother, Today, he resides in San Francisco, California with his wife and two children. He has won multiple awards such as a 2008 TED Prize and a Doctor of Letters from Brown University.

Atlantis Publishing Co.
atlantispublishing.com
Twitter: @AtlantisPubCo
cover design by Krysta Madewell author photo by Krysta Madewell

ISBN 978-1-4002-0165-5

DINNER

David Eggers

David Eggers

A TALE OF TWO BROTHERS

"Dinner" tells us the memoir of David and Toph following the unfortunate events that resulted in losing both parents within a short window of time.

David is a 21 year-old writer who has to suddenly take on the guardian role as he and 8 year-old Toph were the youngest remaining siblings in the family who could barely even sustain themselves. Having to drop his plans for university,

David learns to balance the roles between living his young-adult life to the fullest as well as being a father figure to Toph, whom he hopes will grow through a childhood as normal as he could possibly offer. Being a young breadwinner means someone has to put dinner on the table and although some meals are questionably

DINNER

USD $22.99
CAD $28.50